

S/N	94
Job Title	Static Equipment Specialist
Experience	Minimum 7-8 Years' Experience in Oil & Gas Field with similar experience
Qualification	Minimum Qualifications for this position is Diploma in Mechanical Engineering or similar
Principal Responsibilities	a. He is having good knowledge in static equipment's such as column, heat exchangers, furnace, boiler, vessels and drums etc. b. He has to know LOTO and blinding of static equipment's c. In Pre TA itself he has to study / survey the static equipment's. d. Necessary spares, gaskets, and fasteners availability to be checked. e. Follow Hot bolting procedures as per company requirements. f. Follow Torquing procedures as per company standards. g. Continuously monitor activities carried out by his team and advise them as necessary. h. Report any deficiencies/defects noticed on equipment's during the job. i. Ensure that necessary repair procedures, drawings and other technical details are available at site and work is performed according to manufacturer's standards & procedures. j. Work in close coordination with Company representatives and follow their instructions during jobs on special/complex equipment's. As necessary follow instructions from OEM vendors & Quality officers. k. Report overall job progress/status to Contractor's area Coordinator. If required, attend Job planning Meetings organized by Company and report job progress, concerns, etc. on daily basis during the TA period. l. Keep a note of ongoing jobs in nearby areas by other Contractors and accordingly integrate his own team activities. m. Initiate Job Completion certificate and complete punch points, if any. n. Detailed maintenance report to be submitted by the contractor after work completion.